次の英文を読んで、1 から 6 までの問いに答えなさい。

Some years ago, when I was walking on the street to go to the store, I found I didn't have my wallet. "Where did I lose my wallet?" I thought. I went back and looked for it. After some time, a woman came to me and asked, "Is this yours?" I said, "Oh, yes. That's mine. Thank you very much." She gave it to me. I was very glad. I was going to ask the woman her name, but she went away. I still remember the woman who was very kind to me.

It is very hard for us to do everything alone. ① 1 each other 2 richer and happier 3 our life 4 helping 5 makes. Someone helps you, and you help other people. Is it ( I ) to do something for other people? No, it isn't. Everyone can do it. For example, when you see old people or people who look sick on a bus, you can give them your seat. When a woman who has many things in her hands wants to go into a room, you can open and close the door for her. If you are asked how to go to a place you know, you can show the way. If your father grows flowers in the garden, you can ask him to give you some of them, and you can take them to your school.

There will be more old people in the future. There are some old people who live alone. What can you do for them? Now I will explain. You can write letters to them. They are glad to get letters from you. ② They are happy to know that there are some young people who think about them. You can learn something when you write letters to them. This is ( II ) for both old people and you.

Have you ever heard about a charity bazaar? You bring something that you don't need at home to the bazaar. People come to the bazaar to buy the things you bring, and use them. The money made by selling them is used for the people who need help. Like this, things that you don't need can help someone. Don't you think ③ it is wonderful?

It is ( Ⅲ ) for us to think about other people and to be kind to them. We must not forget that there is someone who needs our help. We can start with easy things to do. Let's begin ( ④ ).

(注) wallet = 財布      charity bazaar = チャリティーバザー
